

Impact Report

2022

Seniors Resource Center

Dear Supporter,

I'm pleased to present the 2022 impact report from Seniors Resource Center.

While I'm so proud of all the work we did in 2022, I want to shine a light on one of our critical services: chores assistance. Our chores services allow our community's older adults to age in place, providing them with a home that is clean, healthy, and free of clutter. This work is at the core of our mission; without a clean home, older adults can't be safe and independent.

But we know it isn't easy. When older adults ask for chores assistance, they're asking for help with something deeply vulnerable and, for some, shameful. They're letting us see their homes when not everything is clean and tidy. They're letting us support them with something they may wish they could do themselves. They're letting us be there for them, even though it's tough.

I'm deeply grateful for every older adult we get to partner with and serve through chores assistance. I'm also grateful for our incredible staff, who work tirelessly to ensure our older adults feel respected, empowered, and comfortable as we help them.

We aren't done, though. I know that countless older adults in our community are still struggling to keep their homes clean. In 2023 and beyond, I hope to expand these services, providing more older adults with the living space they deserve.

This work is only possible through the generosity of new donors, longtime supporters, and funding partners. Thank you for everything you made possible in 2022 and everything we will achieve in 2023.

Chores and Assistance

At Seniors Resource Center, our mission is simple: to help older adults age safely and independently in the place they call home. But older adults can only be safe and independent in a home that is clean and free of excessive clutter.

For many older adults, maintaining a clean home is extremely difficult. Those with mobility challenges may not be able to bend down to pick things up off the floor, lift heavy objects, or be on their feet long enough to finish household chores. Even without these challenges, the prospect of keeping their homes clean—especially if they're facing excessive clutter—can be overwhelming. On top of these challenges, some feel ashamed about the state of their homes, causing them to avoid asking for the help they desperately need.

This is more than a matter of comfort. Too much clutter can increase the risk of falls and make it more difficult for rescue workers to help during an accident. It can also make fires and infestations more likely, all of which threaten the long-term safety and well-being of our older adults.

Seniors Resource Center's chores assistance services are designed to give older adults the safe, comfortable home they deserve. Our expert team of cleaners works with older adults to remove excess clutter from their homes and provide them with a clean, healthy environment. We want our older adults to feel empowered at every stage of the process, so we never clean or remove clutter without their explicit consent.

"The best feeling is when an older adult calls to say that this is the first time in years they've been able to walk around their apartment. Everyone deserves to feel good about the space they live in, and I'm so glad we can provide that for our clients." - Chores Supervisor

We are so grateful to serve our clients in this critical aspect of independence. As we look to the future, we hope to expand our chores assistance services, ensuring every older adult in our community gets the support they need to love the place they call home.

Thank you to our dedicated supporters.

Because of you, we share this longevity together.
